About the organisation:

North East Wales Mind is a progressive mental health organisation that supports people experiencing mental health difficulties to flourish. The aim of our work is to help people build on their strengths, overcome obstacles, and become more in control of their lives. We have faith and optimism in our clients and so the services we deliver are built around their needs. We support the people of Flintshire and Wrexham to discover their own resources to 'recover' from periods of poor mental health, and to live life independently with their mental health condition.

Purpose of role:

The Service Manager will form part of organisation's senior leadership team and play a key role in driving the success and strategic development of our community mental health services, with a particular focus on the iCan service. The post will require focus on other services, ensuring alignment with organisational values and system priorities. You will lead service improvement through proactive and innovative approaches, fostering solutions that meet evolving needs and challenges. This will include embedding a Trauma Informed approach throughout our work, enabling the organisation to become a Trauma Enhanced organisation as outline in the Trauma Informed Wales Framework.

You will be responsible for developing and managing the delivery of high-quality services, overseeing staff and volunteers, producing insightful reports and building and maintaining strong external relationships. Whilst ensuring the voice and influence of people who use our services are at the heart of decision-making, including the development of co-production initiatives. By working collaboratively across the system, you will contribute to the long-term sustainability and reach of our services across North East Wales. In this role, you will prioritise the wellbeing of the people we serve, while ensuring that our practitioners have the support and guidance, they need to deliver safe and effective services to our local communities. Alongside you will be responsible for delivering a range of low-level psychological therapy, trauma informed interventions and evidence-based techniques, to include Supported Self Help.

Job Description:

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provide dynamic and effective leadership to the Community Wellbeing team, with flexibility to support other services as needed, ensuring consistency in service standards and strategic alignment.
- Effectively manage staff and volunteers, setting clear objectives, conducting regular reviews, and fostering continuous development. Take action to manage performance, conduct, and attendance where necessary.
- Champion a co-production approach through the voice and influence of people who use our services and people with lived experience of mental ill health, embedding their feedback into service development and delivery.
- Deliver a range of low level psychological therapy, trauma informed interventions and evidence-based techniques, to include Supported Self Help
- Ensure that services provided are safe, accessible, effective, of a high quality and subject to regular evaluation and maintain the highest level of the Mind Quality Mark.
- Ensure that staff and volunteers are provided with the right support, coaching and development to enable them to do their job and fulfil their potential.

- Lead service development and improvement initiatives with a forward-thinking, innovative approach, ensuring that services remain responsive to both current and emerging needs.
- Build strong, collaborative relationships with internal colleagues and external stakeholders, promoting multi-agency working and service integration to enhance system-wide support.
- Produce high-quality reports that demonstrate both qualitative and quantitative aspects of service performance, ensuring transparency and data integrity.
- Ensure robust risk management practices are in place, particularly in relation to safeguarding, and that these are regularly reviewed and adhered to.
- Oversee service budget management, ensuring financial sustainability and efficiency across all areas of responsibility.
- Work strategically to align service goals with broader system priorities, fostering partnerships that enable long-term service development and growth.
- Participate in on-call duties on a rota basis, ensuring out-of-hours support for operational needs.
